A guide to getting a better job right out of high schoolBy Midwest Book ReviewHigh school may be hard, but putting that education to use may just be harder. "Get That Job! Resume Writing and Interviewing Tips for Recent Graduates" is a guide to getting a better job right out of high school instead of being forced into jobs which can be synonymous with flipping burgers. Author Jack Bernstein gives plenty of tips and advice for starting on the path to a career, rather than slipping into the life of a wage slave. "Get That Job!" is to be strongly considered for new job market contenders.

Career advice, in Spanish and English, for high school graduates, and GED Certificate and Associate's Degree recipients.
