Harriet Castor : Helen Keller (Famous People, Famous Lives) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Helen Keller (Famous People, Famous Lives):

Suitable for National Curriculum Key Stage 1-2, a look at the life of Helen Keller, whose illness in infancy left her both deaf and blind, but who, with the help of her teacher, went on to achieve great things in her life. In the FAMOUS PEOPLE, FAMOUS LIVES series, illustrated by Nick Ward.

About the Author Harriet Castor has written several titles in this series and has a great ability to retell historical events in a lively story form to appeal to the young reader.
