From Peachtree Publishers : Home for the Holidays: Stories and Art Created for the Benefit of Habitat for Humanity before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Home for the Holidays: Stories and Art Created for the Benefit of Habitat for Humanity:

A diverse group of American luminaries offers holiday memories in a charmingly illustrated gift book that benefits Habitat for Humanity International.

From the Back Cover Home for the Holidays gathers the holiday memories of more than sixty prominent Americans - celebrities, politicians, authors, athletes, and artists - who generously donated their stories or pieces of art to Habitat for Humanity for inclusion in this book. Each provides a glimpse into the life of the contributor, creating a scrapbook of memories that will sweeten the holiday season for you and your family. Your purchase of this book will help Habitat for Humanity build low-cost housing with families in need, and thus help bring others "home for the holidays".

About the Author Gene Stelten is the editor of A CHRISTMAS HOUSEWARMING: A COLLECTION OF CHRISTMAS MEMORIES TO BENEFIT HABITAT FOR HUMANITY. He retired after a 32-year career at Motorola, and is currently a board member of Habitat for Humanity in Atlanta and in North Fulton County. Excerpt. Reprinted by permission. All rights reserved.
