nice little book you can carry in your pocket. A plethora of quips in a small package, but nothing new or very interesting for the hard-core Noir fan. 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. The Stuff That Dreams Are Made of ... By R. Lombardo Is there anything better than Film Noir? This book is a great resource for memorable lines from the golden age of film making where color would only be a distraction from the film. Many of the classic lines from the black and white films of the 40s and 50s are included. It's fun to read (and reread) them. It's a very small book and fits in your pocket. It's a reference guide for the nostalgia buffs like me who don't recognize any of today's stars and wonder where all the great movie stars have gone ... 4 of 7 people found the following review helpful. Scary By A CustomerMan some of these quotations are just downright scary Kind of like the movies they came from. What a great book I take my hat off to the author this really impressed me. All I can add is buy this one now.

A collection of quotables from those gritty movies from the mid-forties to the mid-fifties featuring losers and drifters, dreamers and grifters, immortalized by the TV late show.
