interesting. As a result of this book, I purchased a pair of American-made pajamas for my teenager and American-made gardening shoes for myself from two companies listed in this book. I don't think I would have found either company by doing a web search. And I've only just begun! Parents haven't had a decent resource for American-made products for their children. This book lists over 400 companies that use only materials sourced in the USA in their products. What I found to be most interesting was the descriptions of how the companies were started and why the founders started their companies. In this book, I found a company that was only 5 miles away from our house! I would recommend this book to anyone who wants to buy American-made products for their children that they can count on. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Made in the USA Products By Tireponyman (tm) You will find many product you can use and order as gifts like our "PHONY PONY HORSE TIRE SWINGS." I LIKE THE BOOK AND THE AUTHOR. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Finally, Help For Patriotic New Moms By Mary T. Peery Thank you for writing this book and compiling all the products that new mothers need, in an easy-to-read and understand format. As a mother, I try to support local economies and am thrilled when I don't have to look outside the United States for kids products. I feel more comfortable about the durability and safety of American-made products. The customer service is always better too. This is a useful book that is well-worth the money.

All parents want to make sure that the toys they buy for their children are fun, well-made and, above all, safe. Recent recalls of millions of imported toys have caused parents everywhere to be more concerned than ever about products that are manufactured overseas - and the materials that go into them. It is becoming clearer than ever that by buying more American-produced merchandise for our children, we can assure ourselves of its quality and safety. "Made Here, Baby!" is a helpful and much-needed resource for parents who are determined to take control over the kinds of products they give their children. It is a practical, essential guide to more than 400 American manufacturers of toys, games, puzzles, hobbies, sporting goods, apparel, furniture, baby gear, bedding, and other items for children. Complete with personal anecdotes and compelling facts about each company, this book will help parents, grandparents, and relatives find quality, locally made toys and products that are perfect for kids of every age.
