From Butterworths : Manual of Curatorship : A Guide to Museum Practice before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Manual of Curatorship : A Guide to Museum Practice:

The editors are confident that this book will satisfy a long-felt need within the museums profession for an authoritative work covering all aspects of museums skills for the practicing curator. Its multi-disciplinary approach and emphasis on the state and status of contemporary curatorship has been designed to enhance the understanding of recent advances and techniques required in the collection, conservation, management and preservation of objects from both the natural and cultural heritage.
